

WORKSHOP ON ACCESSIBILITY, MOBILITY AND TERRITORIALISATION

23rd November 2018

Blue Poles, 1952 by Jackson Pollock

Roma Tre University, Department of Architecture
Via Madonna dei Monti, 40
00184, Rome, Italy

Aula De Vecchi 10,00 am – 17,00 pm

WORKSHOP ON ACCESSIBILITY, MOBILITY AND TERRITORIALISATION

Rome, 23rd November 2018

Programme

10,00 am – 1,30 pm

Welcoming speech

Elisabetta Pallottino, Chair of the Department of Architecture, Roma Tre University

Introduction on UERA and JPI Urban Europe networking. Challenges to meet

Alan L'Hostis, IFSTTAR Lyon

Scheduled speeches

Social inclusion, accessibility and territorialisation patterns

Elena Battaglini, Fondazione Di Vittorio, Roma

A Multidimensional Analysis of the EU Regional Inequalities

Francesca Parente, Sapienza University of Rome

Accessibility and social exclusion. A case study in Rome

Keti Lelo, Roma Tre University

Is small beautiful? Remarks on the strategy for Inner Areas in Italy

Romina D'Ascanio, Anna Laura Palazzo, Roma Tre University

Promoting accessibility and territorialisation from home. An interdisciplinary project for people with severe disabilities in Tuscany

Paolo Costa, University of Florence

The case of SUMP (Sustainable Urban Mobility Plans)

Michela Lisi, Sapienza University of Rome

Car sharing, car pooling and soft mobility plan. Advantages and limits in territorialisation patterns

Emma Jedidi, Université de Carthage

The walker and the railway station. Historical-prospective research on pedestrian traffic in stations and its spatial management

Pauline Detavernier, Université Paris-Est, AREP

1,30 – 2,30pm Lunch break

2,30 – 5,00pm General Discussion: questions addressed by morning papers, inputs to the JPI Urban Europe, future initiatives, future cooperation (moderated by A. L'Hostis Ifsttar, Elena Battaglini FDV)