AGORA: a multi stakeholder and disciplinary approach

Aims and principles of AGORA

Facilitating the widening of participation in JPI Urban Europe activities

A ecosystem and environment for co-creation and multi-stakeholder involvement

Anticipating the different logics and needs of the different countries, and urban actors stakeholders

Mobilising the different actors for contributing to the defined implementation activities

Three AGORA formats to meet JPI UE's requirements

Strategic Dialogues

- 80-100 participants
- wide strategic discussions
- Main objective: to identify most pressing urban issues, combine knowledge, perspectives and interests for co-creation
- Example: SRIA 2.0 workshop 04/2018 - Bucharest

Thematic Dialogues

- about 30-45 participants
- focussed thematic discussion
- Objective: bring experts on one specific topic issue together; combine knowledge; bring topic further
- Example: Topics for migration call 11/2017 - Berlin

External / Co-hosted Dialogues

- Co-hosting sessions/workshops at conferences to make use of gathering of urban communities
- Objective: Exchange issues to receive input
- Example: Dilemmas of public spaces – EU Placemaking Week 06/2019

AGORA Thematic Dialogue, Riga 11/2019

AGORA Strategic Dialogue, online 05/2020

Invitation to the AGORA Thematic Dialogue:

Pathways towards 15 Minute Cities

Get together: 10th of May 2021 - 16.45-18.15 CEST

Workshop: 11th of May 2021 - 10.00-16.30 CEST

Online via Zoom

Concepts for the 15 Minute City are gaining traction throughout Europe and the world. Amplified by urban vulnerabilities and weaknesses which have been highlighted by the COVID-19 pandemic, rethinking urban areas along the principles of the 15 Minute City has been illustrated as one central pathway towards sustainability and liveability.
